CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1903.

PRICE 5 CENTS

KENTUCKY DERBY AND OAKS.

Not since the Stake was inaugurated, in 1875, have there been so many qualifications for the Kentucky Derby as there are for the coming spring meeting of the new Louisville Jockey Club, at Churchill Downs. Out of 148 eligibles, 36 have qualified to race in this spring event on May 4. That there are so many ready and willing to try their speed against one another is due to the fact that no one horse stands out pre-eminently. This by no means should be taken to mean that no good horses are in the long list of those which may try for the big stakes. While Early, Pat Dunne's good colt, is at this date looked upon as the most likely of the youngsters, there are others as well that are considered likely to put up an excellent race. Among these are Bardolph, which started three times at Latonia last year and was first past the post three times; Onatas, which won the Nursery Stakes at the Downs last spring; Esherin, which won the California Oaks this winter; Sheriff Bell, which has been doing some excellent work at New Orleans, and Spencer Reif, the colt on which John W. Schorr is said to be pinning his faith to win the New Orleans Derby on March 14.

Those qualifying for the Kentucky Derby, 1903, are the following:

L. O. Appleby's Beautiful and Best; G. C. Bennett & Co.'s Irby Bennett, Canyon; E. Corrigan's Sanfoin, Maxey Blumenthal, McGowan, McGee, Raven; C. E. Mahone's Banter; P. Dunne's Early; Durnell & Herz's Prince of Endurance; C. R. Ellison's Judge Himes; Gorman & Bauer's Bardolph; Harry Franklin's Benvolio; M. L. Hayman's Sheriff Bell; Herman & Co.'s Guardian, Stakeholder; J. B. Lewman's Mary Lavana; G. J. Long's Blando; John E. Madden's Onatas; C. DeWitt & Co.'s Will Sherry; Middleton & Jungbluth's Manru, The Picket, Shooting Star, Santon; J. C. Milam & Co.'s Dan McKenna; T. C. McDowell's Woodlake, Bourbon; John F. Schorr's Esherin, Gold Bell, Spencer Reif, Rightful; T. H. Stevens' Treacy; Kinzea Stone's Carley's Dream; John Tevis' Valeat; Woodford & Buckner's Bad News.

Those qualifying for the Kentucky Oaks are the following:

G. C. Bennett & Co.'s Hindi; S. S. Brown's Rheta; E. Corrigan's Siege, Lemco; E. S. Gardner's Vestry; Hickey Bros.' Two Lick; D. A. Honig's Avid; J. B. Lewman's Mary Lavana, Miss Eon; G. J. Long's Florite, Florika; J. W. Pugh's Grace Banta; W. F. Schulte's Grand Mary, Flora Willoughby; John F. Schorr's Esherin; J. F. Smith & Co.'s Maiz-avena; Talbot Bros.' Ilmarinen, The Crisis; Waltring & Co.'s Sanctissima; W. Wells & Co.'s Special Tax; J. P. Banahan's Mudlavia.

NEW ORLEANS NOTES.

H. T. Griffin sold Safeguard yesterday to T. Licalzi and he ran in the latter's interests.

E. Trotter has bought of W. Karrick the two-year-old Arnold K.

The stewards handed out the following after the last race yesterday: For violation of rule 195, W. H. Fizer is ruled off the turf. The officials would give out no information in reference to Fizer's case. From outside sources it was learned that they had positive evidence that Fizer had been using the "dope" on his horses. During the investigation Fizer admitted that he had purchased "dope" and when asked why he bought it replied that he did not get it to look at.

Jockey Treanor has been suspended for the remainder of the meeting. His suspension came as a result of rough riding on Marco in the fourth race yesterday.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Fifty entries have been received for the King's Plate, the chief event of the Canadian turf. This number constitutes a record. Twenty-five owners are represented. J. E. Seagram leads, of course, with nine nominations. William Hendrie has five entered, while Adam Beck, who at one time raced on the metropolitan tracks, has named three. The race is for Canadian bred horses exclusively, and has been run continuously for forty-four years. The approximate value of the event this year is $2,400. The other stakes for the Toronto spring meeting have filled well, and this meeting, which is looked upon as one of the greatest turf gatherings in the entire country, promises no decrease in interest at the coming renewal.

The opening of the spring meeting at Bennings, under the auspices of the Washington Jockey Club, will mark the beginning of the year's campaign on the tracks of the east. After twenty days at Bennings the sport will be taken up at Aqueduct and thence by other New York tracks in the order of the allotment of dates. According to the latest advices from Washington the coming meeting at Bennings promises to be the best ever held in the District of Columbia. The size of the purses and the stakes has been

Time, 2:03, 53, 1:21, 1:50.
Winner—Br. g. by St. Leonards—Distaff (trained by J. Wambsgans).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Handspinner was slow getting in motion, got caught in a jam at the start, and looked hopelessly out of it rounding the first turn, but closed a big gap and finished strongly and was going away at the end. Guess showed a lot of speed and was at home in the going, but stopped as if short. Ringdove was cut off at the turn into the backstretch and finished in the deep going, but was wearing Guess down at the end. Safeguard got an easy ride.
Scratched—37703*Decoracion, 107; 37132 Springstead, 104.
Handspinner, show, out. Guess, show, 8 to 5. Ringdove, show, 3 to 5. Safeguard, show, out.

Time, 2:03, 53, 1:21, 1:50.
Winner—Ch. g. by Chorister—Vivid (trained by H. Robinson).
Went to post at 2:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Chorus Boy went to the front without an effort, showed plenty of speed, opened up a winning gap in the run down the backstretch and was under restraint at the end. Sir Fitzhugh was off running and Mulholland kept him on the path the entire trip. He was doing his best at the end to stall off Thurles. The latter cut the corner at the turn into the homestretch. So did Wunderlich. Henry of Trastamare showed no speed and was never dangerous.
Scratched—37691 John Bull, 105.
Overweights—Katie Gibbons, 1 pound.
Chorus Boy, show, 1 to 2. Sir Fitzhugh, show, 3 to 1. Thurles, show, 4 to 1. Henry of Trastamare, show, out.

Time, 2:03, 52, 1:20, 1:50, 2:18.
Winner—Ch. c. by Bob Miles—Leonora (trained by R. H. Clark).
Went to post at 2:57. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Way was much the best, was under restraint for the first mile where he moved up and took command when ready and came away with ease in the run home. Irving Mayor was driving to the limit to stall off Latson. The latter was pinched off at the start, closed a big gap and finished strongly. Swordsman showed early speed, but tired at the end. Compass tired badly in the last furlong.
Overweights—Latson, 4 pounds.
The Way, show, 3 to 5. Irving Mayor, show, 1 to 2. Latson, show, 7 to 10. Compass, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 2:03, 52, 1:20, 1:35.
Winner—B. c. by Logic—The Slashes (trained by H. McCoulsky).
Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Jove, lucky in escaping interference, was off well in motion and had things all his own way the entire journey. Barkelmore finished strongly. Floyd K. was crowded into the outside fence and stumbled just as the field swung into the backstretch. This ruined his chances. Haack put up a weak finish on Mauser. The latter should have been third.
Scratched—37707*Frank Rice, 100; 37561*Brush By, 95.
Overweights—Jove, 2 pounds; Pageant, 3; Carpet Knight, 3; Mauser, 1 1/2.

Alice Cary, 4-1, Special, Won

Wired to the world yesterday. Monday we gave four cinches:

BIRCH BROOM, LEFLARE.....WON
ROWENA, JIM HALE.....WON

Today at New Orleans in the Fourth Race, 10 to 1 special. At Oakland another Alice Cary.

THIS IS YOUR CHANCE to win a bunch of money with a ten dollar note that comes but once in a long while. We know something about these two.

$1.00 Daily, $5.00 for Six Days.

Wired at 10 a.m. Delivered by messenger before noon.

Steensen Star Special Co.
Suite 513, 225 Dearborn St. Phone Wabash 83.
Branch office, 1438 Ogden Ave. Also on sale at Saratoga and Morrison Hotels cigar stands.

Latson, 5-1, Guaranteed Special, Finished Third.

DENNY DUFFY, 5-1, WON; HANDSPINNER, 3-2, WON; VIRGIE D'OR, 3-2, WON.

The above were also given to win.

Today's Special will be an 8 to 20 to 1 Chance

This one should win to a certainty. Remember our guaranteed specials never exceed more than two in one day. Some of our competitors give half a dozen or more and blow all over the map if one of the bunch happens to win. Always remember that we are the most consistent tipsters in the business and give the largest percentage of winners that can be obtained. Hundreds of clients will verify our statement.

Terms for New Orleans Handicap Selections, including Best Bets, $1 Daily, $1 Weekly, or

$5.00 FOR FIVE WINNING SPECIALS.

Scratches and horses finishing second and third not counted, only actual winners.

Wired at 10 a.m. Delivered to any city address before 12 m. Sheets always on file for public inspection.

NOTE—We have positively no connection with any other concern in this building or elsewhere.

 Winner—B. h. by Strathmore—Lilith (trained by M. F. Carrano).
 Went to post at 4:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Denny Duffy cut across the inside rounding the first turn, where Hicks took him to the good going and kept him there the rest of the trip. He fought it out with Ruby Ray all of the last furlong. Hicks outrode Phillips when it came to a finish. Ruby Ray met with a lot of interference, was bumped into and knocked back at the first turn. She closed a big gap, but the effort told at the end. Lofter got caught in a jam at the start, made up a lot of ground and ran a good race. Aratoma showed early speed, but could not last the route. Hucena made up ground in the last half.
 Scratched—37744 Prince Webb, 105.
 Overweights—Hucena, 1 pound.

 Winner—Ch. m. by Inspector B.—New Era (trained by J. McDowell).
 Went to post at 2:13. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Virgie d'Or, lucky at the start and always within striking distance, wore the leaders down at the end after a long drive. Senora Caesar picked the best going and was reserved to the stretch, where she closed with a rush. Jennie Hughes made the running most of the way, but tired in the closing strides. Nullah tired after following the pacemaker closely. Yrsula was nearly left.

 Winner—B. f. by Yo El Rey—Miss Gentry (trained by W. L. Stanfield).
 Went to post at 2:41. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Annie Marie, lucky at the start and with clear sailing, forced the pace throughout and ran a game race. Young Pepper raced with the winner the entire distance and but for swerving at the end would have won. Sofita was pinned in on the rail in the last furlong and was going strongest of all at the end. Sweet Tone worked a rough journey and was hopelessly pocketed and compelled to pull up when coming fast in the last sixteenth and was best. Miss Ringlets made up ground from a poor start, but ran very sore. Bombardier was forced out of position early. Pachuca had no chance at the start.
 Scratched—37699 Juana, 103.

Time, 1:11.3.
 Winner—B. f. by Trappean—Abbie F. (trained by S. McNaughton).
 Went to post at 3:07. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Alice Cary, off well and favored by the waiting tactics of the pacemakers which forced a terrific pace, caught them tiring in the last furlong and won going away. Lizzie Rice followed the tremendous pace closely and took the lead when straightened for the wire, but was tiring rapidly in the last furlong. Naulahka, away slowly, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Modicum, heavy headed and away badly, ran an extra good race. He ran away six furlongs before the start and made an unexpectedly fine showing. Quatre and Gus Lanka closed steadily from a bad start. Hercules, away badly, ran a phenomenal first half.
 Scratched—31882 Jerid, 113; 37758 Father Wentker, 109; 37089 Fort Wayne, 92.
 Overweights—Quatre, 3 pounds; Gus Lanka, 1; Judge Voorhees, 4.

Time, 24.483, 1:14.3, 1:21.
 Winner—Ch. m. by Amigo—Santa Monica (trained by G. Wentworth).
 Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Mocoito, in rare form, won through Stuart's good judgment, followed Deutschland's pace closely and just got up in the last stride on the outside in the good going. Deutschland, away poorly, made the running at a fast pace and was swerving all over the stretch, but stuck to his work gamely and is a genuinely improved horse. Nigrette was forced out of position in the first eighth and trailed the leaders to the stretch where she was allowed to swerve from the extreme outside into the deep going on the rail and stumbling at the end was unlucky to lose. Shellmount was always outrun.
 Scratched—37676 Royal Rogue, 106.

 Winner—Br. c. by Handsome—Superba, by Flood (trained by S. J. Jones).
 Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Forest King, the medium of a coup, was hard held all the way. He indulged David S. with the lead for six furlongs, then went to the front, cantering the last quarter. David S. ran an unexpectedly fast and game race and stuck to his work courageously at the end. Silver Fizz, always well up, outstayed the others. Canejo journeyed throughout in the deep going on the rail and, after looking dangerous a furlong out, tired almost to a walk. She can do much better. Rosarie went well throughout. Urchin is in poor form.

 Winner—B. c. by Faverdale—Glenola (trained by J. Burrows).
 Went to post 4:24. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Action received a good start, was skillfully ridden, forced the pace with plenty in reserve, came away fast in the last quarter and won going away. Horatius, away poorly and shut off on the first turn, closed a big gap. He was on the extreme outside throughout and finished with a rush and, but for interference in the last fifty yards, might have won. James F. was lucky, waited in behind the pacemakers and finished out a good last quarter, but was swerving at the end. Impetuous, in the deep going, tired at the end of six furlongs and was probably not keyed up for so long a journey. Byronerdale, after displaying unusual speed for seven furlongs, unexpectedly collapsed and probably sulked. He is strictly a mudlark.
 Action, show, 1 to 5. Horatius, show, out. James F., show, 1 to 3.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The horses which are being trained at Clinton Park, Little Rock, are well advanced, and when the meeting opens Monday, March 23, they will be as fit as will be the contingent to come from New Orleans and Memphis. The winter has been unusually mild at Little Rock, and the trainers have not been handicapped as have those at Memphis and elsewhere. J. K. Hughes, the Texas turfman, is the latest arrival at the track. He brings a stable of ten, including The Light, Nearest, Kunja, Edgardo and Pourquoi Pas. Colonel R. R. Rice has sent in from his farm the horses Wax Taper, W. B. Gates, El Caney, Little Chimes, Varner, Little Hindoo, Sallie Lamar, Bandrol, Miss Dora, Master Mariner, Votary and Rose of Red.

The stable of T. P. Hayes contains twenty head, five of the number being three-year-olds, Whipplewood, Orlando, Outlaw, Dollie Gray, Chickasha, and these, with the good horses Jordan and Lady Strathmore, comprise the other division. There are thirteen two-year materially increased, and for the first time in the history of the track stable room for a spring meeting will be at a premium. It is understood that some of the horses of Mr. August Belmont, which have been wintering at Garnett, S. C., will be sent to this meeting. J. W. Schorr has engaged fifteen stalls, and a number of applications for stable room have been had from horsemen now racing at New Orleans.

Owners now racing their strings at New Orleans, have already mapped out their plans for the spring campaign up the line. A majority of the stables will go from there direct to Memphis. The eastern contingent will return to Benning in a body, while several will scatter between Little Rock, Nashville, Chicago and St. Louis. The following shows where the stables will be shipped:

To Memphis—S. C. Hildreth, Durnell & Herz, H. Dernham, J. Arthur, R. G. Lansing, J. N. Miller, E. Trotter, B. Butler, Walker & Winters, E. C. Reynolds, H. Robinson, C. K. Burdeau, Lowe & Hacker, E. & L. Bohlman, H. Morgan & Co., W. H. McCorkle, D. F. Snow, C. Rowe, W. S. Price, W. J. Gilmore, W. Carroll, Haverly Bros., M. Goldblatt, Lammasney Bros.

To St. Louis—U. Z. DeArman, S. W. Streett, K. D. Orr, R. E. Watkins & Co., V. Hughes, S. J. Charles, C. E. Durnell & Co., E. Dealy & Co., J. Howell, J. W. Nixon, T. A. Gay & Co., Jabine & Co., G. I. Landon, S. J. Adams & Co., W. W. Fawcett, E. W. Baxter, M. Blardone & Co., J. Wambsgans, T. Miles, G. W. Scott.

To Chicago—R. M. Westerfield, T. Carey, R. G. Bolich, H. I. Saxton, J. P. Hirth & Co., W. Burke, J. P. Krewer.

To Little Rock—J. U. Strode, B. Schreiber, L. B. Kahn & Co., J. Arthur, H. D. Beams, J. C. Tucker & Co., R. N. Vestal, A. Zimmer.

To Louisville—E. Corrigan.
To Nashville—Fizer & Co., E. W. Moore & Co., W. S. Laird, F. Gering, R. P. Dodson, J. McAllester & Co., J. W. Berthurum, G. W. Summers, J. S. Rothert, Doyle Bros., A. Bellew & Co.

W. C. Scott, editor of the Thoroughbred Record, is making an effort to revive racing at the historic old Kentucky Association course at Lexington. In an editorial in a recent issue of his paper, he expresses confidence that the Western Jockey Club would gladly grant the track a license for a six days' meeting just prior to the opening of the Louisville meeting, and calls upon the merchants at Lexington to aid the breeders in financing the proposition. He argues that there are now in training at the Lexington track over two hundred thoroughbreds, a sufficient number to give a meeting of the duration proposed, without drafting the material of other tracks, and that it is due horsemen who have wintered at the course that they have benefits in some such shape from the people they have so materially aided. No money could be lost on a properly conducted meeting at Lexington, and the probabilities are that the matter will be taken up by the Chamber of Commerce or the Business Men's Club of Lexington.

Joseph Yeager, of Cincinnati, is the latest to try and secure a stable of thoroughbreds that will be strong enough to compete with the best of the western racing strings. Last Sunday Yeager spent at Montgomery Park looking over his trio of thoroughbreds, Jane Holly, Anchor and Bonnalie, and made no secret of the fact that he wanted to branch out as a large owner. He visited McChesney, the champion Gilfain, Topsoil, Skilful and other good three-year-olds in their barns at the track, but after a talk with Emil Herz, of Durnell & Herz, Yeager announced that he would probably encounter many obstacles in mustering a string of horses that could win. Yeager was accompanied by Ed Stutte, the Kansas City bookmaker, who may become interested in the ownership of a string of horses.

The racing string of Thomas C. McDowell, proprietor of Ashland Stud, for this year will consist of twenty-five horses all told, made up of nineteen two-year-olds, four three-year-olds, one each four and five. The nomenclature of the youngsters is complete, except two. The stable will be led by last year's Kentucky Derby winner, Allan-a-Dale, which is keeping up in good shape and shows no signs of his disability of last season. It is, therefore, settled that he will race this year, and he is being prepared for the campaign. The five-year-old brown mare Monarka, by Prince of Monaco—Narka, and his two derby prospects, Woodlake and Bourbon, with Kentucky Cardinal and Escorial, make up the older division. The horses all are in splendid shape. They are back in their work owing to the continued wet weather, but Mr. McDowell expects to have them in shape for the Louisville meeting.

Joseph E. Wheeler, registrar of the stud book department of the Jockey Club, has written an acceptance of the names selected for the two-year-olds, which are as follows: Geranium, br. f., by Lazzarone—Gaillard III.

Maritana, b. f., by Sir Walter—Virginia Dare.

Chatsworth, b. c., by Charade—Mago.

Marvin, ch. c., by Hindoo—Queen Regent.

Delmonico, br. c., by Sir Dixon—High Degree.

Japan, ch. c., by Top Gallant—The Queen's Gambit.

Elridge, b. c., by Onondaga—Antelope.

Gold Star, ch. c., by Ornament—Kitty Clive.

Peasant Girl, ch. f., by Order—Madrilene.

Oriental, b. f., by Wadsworth—Dorothy Jordan.

Princess Wildwood, ch. f., by Prince of Monaco—Bamboo.

Chief Deputy, ch. c., by Salvator—Monarda.

Baritone, ch. c., by Sir Walter—Aggie M.

Red, White and Blue, br. c., by Requit—Our Flag.

Grand, b. c., by Deceiver—Brigetta.

Chrystal, ch. c., by Ornament—Hutoka.

Two-year-old bay filly, by Pirate of Penzance—Queen Like II.

Two-year-old brown filly by Requit—Kanawha.

The last two had been named Miss Gossip and Whim respectively, but as those names had already been claimed, others will have to be selected.

HILDRETH'S GOOD STRING.

It is a very different collection of thoroughbreds from that which S. C. Hildreth carried north last year that will campaign in his colors during the forthcoming summer. Hildreth left Memphis last spring, started the struggle here for purses by winning the Worth Handicap with the speed marvel, Waring, and a little later startled the turfites by capturing five flat races in one afternoon. There was but one other race programmed at the Worth track that day, and it was a steeplechase event which might have been won by Hildreth's Precursor, had he started. The all conquering stable of Hildreth's at that time included Lucien Appleby, McChesney, Gonfalon, Searcher, Rolling Boer, The Lady, Vulcain and others, in addition to Waring. Horses running in Hildreth's colors won $71,466, and those he sold to Durnell & Herz and other parties won more than $20,000, which made Hildreth the looked on largest winner of the year.

Hildreth will start the local season of racing with sixteen head of good, bad and indifferent horses. The most talked of horse in his barn at present is Topsoil, an American Derby candidate that beat Dick Welles, Savable, Early and other crack two-year-olds in such a manner in a stake at Washington Park last summer that his stock for the Derby has increased very much of late. In Witfull and Floyd K., Hildreth has other three-year-olds, and his four-year-olds include Lord Quex, John Peters, Major Tenny, Leviathan and Harry Wilson. Lord Quex will be given his first chance to race in the Montgomery Handicap, for which he has received backing in the future book.

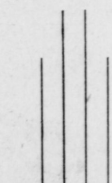

In five-year-olds Hildreth has C. B. Campbell, Sarnier, Telamon, St. Marcos and Alard. The aged Favonius is the solitary member of the old division. In two-year-olds Hildreth owns a couple of his own breeding, but one of them at least will never race unless a technicality that exists over the registration of the colt's dam can be straightened out with the Jockey Club. The colt is by Brutus, but the dam, Rihando, has never been duly registered. The other youngster is a bay colt by Hamilton II., which raced in Hildreth's colors, and the dam is La Salinas, also owned by Hildreth.
